VIOLATION OF RULES CHARGED TO WHITEHOUSE

Supervisor Arnold Says City Engineer Goes Over Head of Purchasing Agent

Two resolutions and a committee report were directed against City Engineer Whitehouse at the meeting of the board of supervisors last night. The committee on roads, bridges and public improvements reported to the board that its attention had been called to orders alleged to have been issued to clerks and assistants in the engineer's departments by Whitehouse, directing them to ignore the city purchasing department and to buy all supplies in the open market.

Mr. Whitehouse denies ever going over the head of the purchasing department in buying materials. Arnold, however, insists that his information came directly from the city and county engineer's office.

"Can you tell a single time when I bought anything without an order?" asked the engineer of Supervisor Arnold after the meeting last night.

Mr. Arnold then pointed out that the engineer wanted Firestone tires for a truck recently, whereas the lowest bid was for Goodrich tires. The Goodrich tires were bought, but not through the engineer's office.

"Don't be afraid that this purchasing department won't work," said Arnold, "for if it doesn't it will be up to the supervisors, and not to the engineer."

The committee desired to inform Whitehouse that all purchases must be made in accordance with Ordinance 16, which establishes the purchasing bureau, and any employee who makes purchases for the city without a written order from the purchasing agent will be dealt with by the board.

Supervisor Arnold then introduced two resolutions calling upon Whitehouse to explain two "incidents."

The first of these called upon the engineer to submit to the board a written statement showing the number of times he has loaned city road rollers and other machinery to private firms and individuals during the year, and the names of those to whom machines were loaned. No record of any rent being paid to the city for these machines is noted in the auditor's office, it is said.

The second resolution asks Whitehouse to explain under what authority

ODD FELLOWS HOLD MEMORIAL SERVICES SUNDAY AFTERNOON

Program at Lodge Hall to Be Followed by Decoration of Graves at Nuuanu

The Honolulu Odd Fellows' lodge will hold their annual memorial services in the Odd Fellows' hall on Sunday afternoon, June 6, at 2 o'clock. The general public is invited to the services, which will be followed by a trip to Nuuanu cemetery, and the decoration of the graves of all members of the order buried there. Special Rapid Transit cars will take the visitors to the cemetery. The Odd Fellows' memorial day, when services are held the world over in memory of lodge members who have died during the last twelve months, is fixed each year by a proclamation from the Sovereign Grand Lodge.

The program for the services at the Odd Fellows' hall next Sunday has been arranged as follows:

the Honolulu Rapid Transit & Land Company is empowered to tear up the pavement at Queen and Nuuanu streets, and, further, did the concerns who put down the patent pavement give the engineer permission to have pavement torn up. Hereafter, said the resolution, let all requests for permission to tear up any pavement in any part of the city and county be approved first by the board of supervisors.

ARNOLD SPEAKS IN HIGH PRAISE OF R. W. SHINGLE

The appointment by Mayor Lane of Robert W. Shingle as supervisor to take the place of James C. Quinn, deceased, was unanimously confirmed by the board of supervisors last night. Supervisor Arnold moved that the board confirm the mayor's appointment, and spoke in behalf of the board.

"We congratulate you, Mr. Mayor, upon your selection of Mr. Shingle to work with us on this board. We believe him to be a capable, efficient public servant, and one who will harmonize thoroughly with the present situation. We anticipate pushing forward with his help, and can hope for a solution of some of the serious financial problems which confront the municipality. We also feel that Mr. Shingle is making a great sacrifice. It is his personal interests to the city. It will be a pleasure indeed to work with him for Honolulu."

HEINIE DELAYS GRAND OPENING OF HIS TAVERN

Judging from the "young army" of men busily engaged at Heinie's Tavern—and from the glowing reports from those who ought to know, one will be able to repeat the old saying: "You wouldn't know the old place now."

It's a fact things certainly are booming on the site of the old Waikiki Inn. The almost entire remodeling of the buildings has put a very different appearance on the place. And since the personnel, management and conduct of the tavern is being subjected to as complete a remodeling as the premises, there seems little need of hesitancy in expressing the thought that "Heinie's" will develop into a very popular beach resort.

The grand opening, which was planned for Saturday of this week, has been necessarily postponed until June 10, as stated in last night's Star-Bulletin.

Heinie wouldn't have it any other way, for the simple reason, as he puts it, that he doesn't want to "go off half-cocked."

The improvements have been so extensive and the arrangements for the opening dinner and entertainment so elaborate that it would be impossible to open upon the first intended date, and have everything in complete readiness.

Heinie promises a splendid menu, accompanied by a surprisingly entertaining program, featuring Signor Puccini of the Bevani Opera Company, who will stay over in Honolulu for one week especially to sing at the Tavern, instead of going to the Coast in the Sierra Saturday with the rest of the company. Heinie prefers not to divulge the nature of the evening's entertainment, which he wants to be a pleasant surprise.

There appears an advertisement in another page of this issue giving details as to table reservations. Those who intend attending upon the evening of June 10 would do well to look this ad over.
